

the OCEANS issue

June 2018 www.boatinternational.com

BOAT

International

THE 2018 OCEAN AWARDS

Meet the real heroes saving the seas

HOW ECO ARE YOU?

Cruising with a clean conscience

BLACK PEARL

Behind the scenes of the world's biggest sailing yacht

Balearic beat: pick the perfect party island for you

£7.00

Project E-volution is a hybrid sailer with diesel-electric power

DETAILS
 home Turkey web sesyachts.com

Hoek's Truly Classic series combines 1930s' elegance with modern technology

In the sheds: C2239, 2371 E-volution, 2369
What's the buzz? Alongside C2239, scheduled for 2019, and the fourth hull in the Ron Holland 60m series that spawned the freshly delivered Seven, Perini is busy working on two sailing yachts for 2020: Hull 2369, a 47m sloop; and a 42m hybrid sailer. The latter, Project E-volution, will be as elegant as she is economical, featuring a new Perini-devised propulsion system, lifting keel and powerful sailplan.

DETAILS
 home Italy
 web perinnavi.it

SES YACHTS

In the sheds: TC128-3
What's the buzz? The third iteration of the 39.4m Hoek-designed TC128 will be launched next year and has been significantly customised for her owner. The deck, for example, features one deckhouse further aft and two generous cockpits, one for sailing and one for lounging and dining.

FULL SAIL AHEAD

Angela Audretsch unveils the next generation of sailing beauties taking shape in yards around the world

In the sheds: 2 x Sunreef 80
What's the buzz? Two Sunreef 80 catamarans are in build, a series that is part of an extensive refresh of the Polish yard's sailing range. One will be launched this year and has a custom-designed bimini, while the layout of the second - launched next year - is particularly family-friendly, with two of the three guest cabins fitted with three beds.

The Sunreef 80 has a 11.5m beam, meaning a spacious main deck saloon and sundeck

DETAILS
 home Poland
 web sunreef-yachts.com